DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's response to the last Office Action, filed 6/19/2008, has been entered and made of record.
2. Applicant has amended claims 1-2, 5-11, 13-14, 16, 18-19, and 21-22. Claims 1-21 are currently pending.
3. Applicant's arguments filed 9/19/2008 have been fully considered and are persuasive.
4. After reviewing the remarks made by the Applicant in response to the non-final office action the Examiner finds the remarks to be persuasive. The most pertinent prior art is Tuli et al (5,942,761) and Angelo et al (US 6,182,892). Tuli discloses a fingerprint reading device that utilizes a patterned strip that determines the rate at which information is sent to the device's microprocessor. Angelo et al discloses fingerprint authentication device in which a smart card is used to transmit the imprint of the fingerprint to a scanning device wherein the imprint platen 110 and the image port 114 are connected by a gradient index optical path 302. The path is optically transparent such that the imprint of a finger can be illuminated and read by the live-scan device 104 (figure 3). Neither Tuli et al nor Angelo et al discloses "an encoder target having a grid pattern representing a plurality of binary numbers, wherein the boxed pattern and the platen are associated to allow the scan head to capture a plurality of scan lines such that each member of the plurality of scan lines includes at least a portion of the grid pattern representing a binary number and at least a portion of the platen, and wherein the captured plurality of scan lines are assembled based on a binary number value associated with the captured portion of the grid pattern". The Examiner finds no reason or motivation to combine the above references in an obviousness rejection thus placing the application in condition for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
